

1. What do the lyrics communicate about the Shaker lifestyle? [Expressive Intent]

The Shakers had a simple lifestyle. The lyrics tell me that because in the beginning it said the gift was simple. Also, It says that ~~that~~ their OK to gain simpleness and that they wont be ashamed.

2. Select the qualities of the elements of music that you hear in each recording. Check all that apply.

Reflection	Performance 1	Performance 2	Performance 3
How do the elements of music and structural components identified for each performance affect a listener's response?	It was ok but hard to figure out the Elements of music	better than before	Best of all
Which version do you feel best represents the expressive intent and what criteria did you use to make that choice?

3. Based on what you learned about the Shakers, select the piece that best reflects the purpose and context of the Shaker's life. Use the lyrics and the chart from the last two pages to help you explain your selection using music vocabulary citing evidence of expressive qualities (such as elements of music) and your own personal interpretation.

- A Cappella
- Yo-Yo Ma (cellist) and Alison Krauss (singer)
- Appalachian Spring by Aaron Copland

I think the 3rd one was the most reflecting song to the SHAKERS because I think the Shakers would not sing. ~~just music that's classical~~ They wouldn't because they didn't on the president video

Responding Worksheet p.4

4. Based on your preference, explain which performance you liked best.

- A Capella
- Yo-Yo Ma (cellist) and Alison Krauss (singer)
- Appalachian Spring by Aaron Copland

Explain, citing evidence, how your preferred performance relates to your personal interests and experiences.

I like the middle one
the best because I like songs that has words AND music at the same time
