

Our dance melts together many different girls with different skill levels to make a beautiful dance. The entire dance is immersed in the theme of community. The dancer weaves in and out of formations throughout the dance creating a variety of visual art forms. Levels are created through the use of calypsos, granjetes, and floor rolls. All these dance techniques are used as a group to create a commutative feel to the dance.