

GLOSSARY for National Core Arts: Music STANDARDS

AB Musical form consisting of two sections, A and B, which contrast with each other (binary form) form)
АВА
Musical form consisting of three sections, A, B, and A; two are the same, and the middle one is different (ternary form)
Ability
Natural aptitude in specific skills and processes; what the student is apt to do, without formal instruction Academic vocabulary words that traditionally are used in academic dialogue and text Analog tools
Category of musical instruments and tools that are non-digital (i.e., do not transfer sound in or convert sound into binary code), such as acoustic instruments, microphones monitors, and speakers Analysis (See Analyze)

Analyze
Examine in detail the structure and context of the music Arrangement
Setting or adaptation of an existing musical composition Arranger
Person who creates alternative settings or adaptations of existing music Articulation Characteristic way in which musical tones are connected, separated, or accented; types of articulation include legato (smooth, connected tones) and staccato (short, detached tones) Artistic literacy
Knowledge and understanding required to participate authentically in the Arts Atonality
Music in which no tonic or key center is apparent Audiate Hear and comprehend sounds in one's head (inner hearing), even when no sound is present
Audience etiquette
Social behavior observed by those attending musical performances and which can vary depending upon the type of music performed Beat
Underlying steady pulse present in most music Benchmark
Pre-established definition of an achievement level, designed to help measure student progress toward a goal or standard, expressed either in writing or as an example of cored student work (aka, anchor set)

Binary form
(See AB)
Body percussion
Use of the human body as an instrument to create percussive/rhythmic sounds such as stomping, patsching (patting thighs), clapping, clicking, snapping Bordun
Accompaniment created by sounding two tones, five notes apart, continuously throughout a composition; can be performed in varying ways, such as simultaneously or alternating
Chant
Most commonly, the rhythmic recitation of rhymes, or poems without a sung melody; a type of singing, with a simple, unaccompanied melody line and free rhythm Chart
Jazz or popular music score, often abbreviated, with a melody (including key and time signature) and a set of chord changes
Chord progression
Series of chords sounding in succession; certain progressions are typical in particular styles/genres of music Collaboratively
Working together on a common (musical) task or goal Collaboratively-developed criteria Qualities or traits for assessing achievement level that have been through a process of collective decision-making Complex formal structure Musical form in which rhythmic, melodic, harmonic, and/or other musical materials undergo significant expansion and development, and may be more distantly related across sections while remaining coherent in some way, such as sonata or other novel design with three or more sections

Composer
One who creates music compositions Composition
Original piece of music that can be repeated, typically developed over time, and preserved either in notation or in a sound recording Compositional devices Tools used by a composer or arranger to create or organize a composition or arrangement, such as tonality, sequence, repetition, instrumentation, orchestration, harmonic/melodic structure, style, and form Compositional procedures
Techniques that a composer initiates and continues in pieces to develop musical ideas, such as fragmentation, imitation, sequencing, variation, aggregate completion, registra saturation, contour inversion of gestures, and rhythmic phrasing Compositional techniques Approaches a composer uses to manipulate and refine the elements to convey meaning and intent in a composition, such as tension-release, augmentation-diminution, sound-silence, motion-stasis, in addition to compositional devices Concepts, music Understandings or generalized ideas about music that are formed after learners make connections and determine relationships among ideas Connection
Relationship among artistic ideas, personal meaning, and/or external context Context
Environment that surrounds music, influences understanding, provides meaning, and connects to an event or occurrence Context, cultural Values, beliefs, and traditions of a group of people that influence musical meaning and

inform culturally authentic musical practice

Context, historical Conditions of the time and place in which music was created or performed that provide meaning and influence the musical experience Context, personal
Unique experiences and relationships that surround a single person and are influenced by personal life, family, habits, interest, and preferences Context, social environment Surrounding something or someone's creation or intended audience that reflects and influences how people use and interpret the musical experience Craftsmanship
Degree of skill and ability exhibited by a creator or performer to manipulate the elements of music in a composition or performance
Create Conceive and develop new artistic ideas, such as an improvisation, composition, or arrangement, into a work Creative intent
Shaping of the elements of music to express and convey emotions, thoughts, and ideas
Creator
One who originates a music composition, arrangement, or improvisation
Criteria
Guidelines used to judge the quality of a student's performance (See Rubric) Cultural context
Values, beliefs, and traditions of a group of people that influence musical meaning and
inform culturally authentic musical practice Culturally authentic performance Presentation that reflects practices and interpretation representative of the style and traditions of a culture

Culture
Values and beliefs of a particular group of people, from a specific place or time, expressed through characteristics such as tradition, social structure, religion, art, and food
Cyclical structure
Musical form characterized by the return or "cycling around" of significantly recognizable themes, motives, and/or patterns across movements Demonstrate Show musical understanding through observable behavior such as moving, chanting, singing, or playing instruments Diatonic
Seven-tone scale consisting of five whole steps and two half steps Digital environment
Simulated place made or created through the use of one or more computers, sensors, or equipment
Digital notation
A visual image of musical sound created by using computer software applications, intended either as a record of sound heard or imagined, or as a set of visual instructions for performers
Digital resources Anything published in a format capable of being read by a computer, a web-enabled device, a digital tablet, or smartphone Digital systems Platforms that allow interaction and the conversion between and through the audio and digital domains
Digital tools Category of musical instruments and tools that manipulate sound using binary code, such as electronic keyboards, digital audio interfaces, MIDI, and computer software

Dynamics
Level or range of loudness of a sound or sounds Elements of music
Basic characteristics of sound (pitch, rhythm, harmony, dynamics, timbre, texture, form, and style/articulation) that are manipulated to create music
Enduring understanding
Overarching (aka, "big") ideas that are central to the core of the music discipline and may be transferred to new situations
Ensemble
Group of individuals organized to perform artistic work: traditional, large groups such as bands, orchestras, and choirs; chamber, smaller groups, such as duets, trios, and quartets; emerging, such as guitar, iPad, mariachi, steel drum or pan, and Taiko drumming
Essential question
Question that is central to the core of a discipline –in this case, music – and promotes investigation to uncover corresponding enduring understanding(s)
Established criteria
Traits or dimensions for making quality judgments in music of a particular style, genre, cultural context, or historical period that have gained general acceptance and application over time
Expanded form
Basic form (such as AB, ABA, rondo or theme and variation) expanded by the addition of an introduction, transition, and/or coda Explore
Discover, investigate, and create musical ideas through singing, chanting, playing instruments, or moving to music
Expression
Feeling conveyed through music

Expressive aspects
Characteristics that convey feeling in the presentation of musical ideas Expressive intent
The emotions, thoughts, and ideas that a performer or composer seeks to convey by manipulating the elements of music
Expressive qualities
Qualities such as dynamics, tempo, articulation which when combined with other elements of music give a composition its musical identity
Form
Element of music describing the overall organization of a piece of music, such as AB, ABA, rondo, theme and variations, and strophic form
Formal design
Large-scale framework for a piece of music in which the constituent parts cohere into a meaningful whole; encompasses both structural and tonal aspects of the piece
Fret
Thin strip of material placed across the fingerboard of some stringed Instruments, such as guitar, banjo, and mandolin; the fingers press the strings against the frets to determine pitch
Function
Use for which music is created, performed, or experienced, such as dance, social, recreation, music therapy, video games, and advertising Fundamentals of music theory
Basic elements of music, their subsets, and how they interact: rhythm and meter; pitch and clefs; intervals; scales, keys and key signatures; triads and seventh chords
Fusion
Type of music created by combining contrasting styles into a new style

Genre
Category of music characterized by a distinctive style, form, and/or content, such as jazz, march, and country
Guidance Assistance provided temporarily to enable a student to perform a musical task that would be difficult to perform unaided, best implemented in a manner that helps develop that student's capacity to eventually perform the task independently Harmonic sequences
Series of two or more chords commonly used to support melody(ies) Harmonizing instruments musical instruments, such as guitars, ukuleles, and keyboards, capable of producing harmonies as well as melodies, often used to provide chordal accompaniments for melodies and songs Harmonization
Process of applying stylistically appropriate harmony, such as chords, countermelodies, and ostinato, to melodic material Harmony Chordal structure of a music composition in which the simultaneous sounding of pitches produces chords and their successive use produces chord progressions Heterophonic Musical texture in which slightly different versions of the same melody sound simultaneously
Historical context
Conditions of the time and place in which music was created or performed and that provide meaning and influence the musical experience

Historical periods
Period of years during which music that was created and/or performed shared common characteristics; historians of Western art music typically refer to the following: Medieval (ca. 500-ca. 1420), Renaissance (ca. 1420-ca. 1600), Baroque (ca. 1600-ca. 1750), Classic
(ca. 1750-ca. 1820), Romantic (ca. 1820-ca. 1900), and Contemporary (ca. 1900-) Homophonic Musical texture in which all parts move in the same rhythm but use different pitches, as in hymns; also, a melody supported by chords Iconic notation
Representation of sound and its treatment using lines, drawings, pictures Imagine
Generate musical ideas for various purposes and contexts Imagination Ability to generate in the mind ideas, concepts, sounds, and images that are not physically present and may not have been previously experienced (See Audiate) Improvisation
Music created and performed spontaneously or "in-the-moment," often within a framework determined by the musical style Improviser
One who creates music spontaneously or "in-the-moment" Independently Working with virtually no assistance, initiating appropriate requests for consultation, performing in a self-directed ensemble offering ideas/solutions that make such consulting collaborative rather than teacher-directed Intent
Meaning or feeling of the music planned and conveyed by a creator or performer

Interpret
Determine and demonstrate music's expressive intent and meaning when responding and performing Interpretation
Intent and meaning that a performer realizes in studying and performing a piece of music
Intervals
Distance between two tones, named by counting all pitch names involved; harmonic interval occurs when two pitches are sounded simultaneously, and melodic interval when two pitches are sounded successively Intonation
Singing or playing the correct pitch in tune
Key signature
Set of sharps or flats at the beginning of the staff, following the clef sign, that indicates the primary pitch set or scale used in the music and provide clues to the resting tone and mode Lead-sheet notation
System symbol used to identify chords in jazz, popular, and folk music; uppercase letters are written above the staff, specifying which chords should be used and when they should be played Lyrics
Words of a song
Major scale
Scale in which the ascending pattern of whole and half steps is whole, whole, half, whole, whole, half Melodic contour_ Shape of a melody created by the way its pitches repeat and move up and down in steps and skips

Melodic passage
Short section or series of notes within a larger work that constitutes a single coherent melodic idea
Melodic pattern
Grouping, generally brief, of tones or pitches
Melody Linear succession of sounds (pitches) and silences moving through time; the horizontal structure of music
Meter Grouping of beats and divisions of beats in music, often in sets of twos (duple meter) or threes (triple meter)
Minor scale
Scale in which one characteristic feature is a half step between the second and third tones; the three forms of the minor scale are natural, harmonic, and melodic Modal
Music based on a mode other than major or minor Modes
Seven-tone scales that include five whole steps and two half steps; the seven possible modes —Ionian, Dorian, Phrygian, Lydian, Mixolydian, Aeolian, and Locrian— were used in the Medieval and Renaissance periods and served as the basis from which major (Ionian) and minor (Aeolian) scales emerged Model cornerstone assessment

Moderately complex formal structure

Musical form with three or more sections (such as rounded binary, rondo, or other novel design), in which section closure is somewhat nuanced or ambiguous, and the rhythmic, melodic, harmonic, and/or other musical materials across sections may be more distantly related while remaining coherent in some way

Suggested assessment process, embedded within a unit of study, that includes a series of focused tasks to measure student achievement within multiple process components

Mood
Over-all feeling that a section or piece of music conveys Monophonic
Musical texture consisting of a single, unaccompanied melodic line Motif/motive
Brief rhythmic/melodic figure or pattern that recurs throughout a composition as a unifying element Movement
Act of moving in nonlocomotor (such as clapping and finger snapping) and locomotor (such as walking and running) patterns to represent and interpret musical sounds
Music literacy
Knowledge and understanding required to participate authentically in the discipline of music by independently carrying out the artistic processes of creating, performing, and responding
Music theory
Study of how music is composed and performed; analysis of the elements of music and the framework for understanding musical works
Music vocabulary
Domain-specific words traditionally used in performing, studying, or describing music (See Academic vocabulary)
Musical criteria
Traits relevant to assessing music attributes of a work or performance Musical idea
Idea expressed in music, which can range in length from the smallest meaningful level (motive or short pattern) through a phrase, a section, or an entire piece
Musical range
Span between the highest and lowest pitches of a melody, instrument, or voice

Musical work
Piece of music preserved as a notated copy or sound recording or passed through oral tradition tradition
Non-pitched instruments Instruments, such as woodblocks, whistles, electronic sounds, that do not have definite pitches or tones
Notation
Visual representation of musical sounds
One-part formal structure Continuous form, with or without an interruption, in which a singular instance of formal closure is achieved only at or near the end of the piece; also known as through- composed Open-ended assessment Assessment that allows students to demonstrate the learning of a particular outcome in a variety of ways, such as demonstrating understanding of rhythmic notation by moving, singing, or chanting Pentatonic scale
Five-tone scale often identified with the pattern of the black keys of a keyboard, although other five-tone arrangements are possible Perform
Process of realizing artistic ideas and work through interpretation and presentation Performing, performance
Experience of engaging in the act of presenting music in a classroom or private or public venue (See also Artistic Process of Performing) Performance decorum
Aspects of contextually appropriate propriety and proper behavior, conduct, and appearance for a musical performance, such as stage presence, etiquette, and appropriate attire

Performance practice Performance and presentation of a work that reflect established norms for the style and social, cultural, and historical contexts of that work Performance technique
Personal technical skills developed and used by a performer Personal context
Unique experiences and relationships that surround a single person and are influenced
by personal life, family, habits, interest, and preferences
Personally-developed criteria Qualities or traits for assessing achievement level developed by students individually Phrase Musical segment with a clear beginning and ending, comparable to a simple sentence or clause in written text Phrasing Performance of a musical phrase that uses expressive qualities such as dynamics, tempo articulation, and timbre to convey a thought, mood, or feeling Piece
General, non-technical term referring to a composition or musical work Pitch
Identification of a tone or note with respect to highness or lowness (i.e., frequency)
Plan
Select and develop musical ideas for creating a musical work Polyphonic
Musical texture in which two or more melodies sound simultaneously Polytonal
Music in which two or more tonalities (keys) sound simultaneously

Present
Share artistic work (e.g., a composition) with others Program Presentation of a sequence of musical works that can be performed by individual musicians or groups in a concert, recital, or other setting Purpose Reason for which music is created, such as, ceremonial, recreational/social, commercial or generalized artistic expression Refine
Make changes in musical works or performances to more effectively realize intent through technical quality or expression Repertoire
Body or set of musical works that can be performed Respond
Understand and evaluate how the arts convey meaning Rhythm
Duration or length of sounds and silences that occur in music; organization of sounds and silences in time Rhythmic passage
Short section or series of notes within a larger work that constitutes a single coherent rhythmic idea
Rhythmic pattern
Grouping, generally brief, of long and short sounds and silences
Rondo
Musical form consisting of three or more contrasting sections in which one section recurs, such as ABACA

Rubric
Established, ordered set of criteria for judging student performance; includes descriptors of student work at various levels of achievement Scale Pattern of pitches arranged in ascending or descending order and identified by their specific arrangement of whole and half steps Score
Written notation of an entire music composition
Section
One of a number of distinct segments that together comprise a composition; a section consists of several phrases Select
Choose music for performing, rehearsing, or responding based on interest, knowledge, ability, and context Sensitivity Skill of a creator, performer, or listener in responding to and conveying the nuances of sound or expression Set Sequence of songs or pieces performed together by a singer, band, or disc jockey and constituting or forming part of a live show or recording Setting
Specified or implied instrumentation, voicing, or orchestration of a musical work Setting of the text
Musical treatment of text as presented in the music Share
Present artistic work (e.g., a composition) to others

Sight-reading
First attempt to perform a notated musical work Simple formal structure
Musical form with a small number of distinct or clearly delineated sections, (such as simple binary, ternary, or other novel design), using closely related rhythmic, melodic, and harmonic materials across the sections
Social context
Environment surrounding something or someone's creation or intended audience that reflects and influences how people use and interpret the musical experience
Sonic events
Individual sounds (or sound masses) and silences whose succession forms patterns and contrasting units that are perceived as musical Sonic experience
Perception and understanding of the sounds and silences of a musical work and their inter-relationship Stage presence
Performer's ability to convey music content to a live audience through traits such as personal knowledge of the repertoire, exhibited confidence, decorum, eye contact and facial expression
Staging
Environmental considerations, such as lighting, sound, seating arrangement, and visual enhancements, that contribute to the impact of a musical performance
Standard notation
System for visually representing musical sound that is in widespread use; such systems include traditional music staff notation, tablature notation (primarily for fretted stringed instruments), and lead-sheet notation Storyline
Extra-musical narrative that inspires or explains the structure of a piece of music

Strophic form
Vocal music in which the music repeats with a new set of text each time Structural (See Structure)
Structure
Totality of a musical work
Style
Label for a type of music possessing distinguishing characteristics and often performance practices associated with its historical period, cultural context, and/or genre
Stylistic expression
Interpretation of expressive qualities in a manner that is authentic and appropriate to the genre, historical period, and cultural context of origin
Tablature
System of graphic standard notation, commonly used for fretted stringed instruments, in which a diagram visually represents both the fret board and finger placement on the fret board
Teacher-provided criteria Qualities or traits for assessing achievement level that are provided to students by the teacher Technical aspects
Characteristics enabling the accurate representation/presentation of musical ideas
Technical challenges
Requirements of a particular piece of music that stretch or exceed a performer's current level of proficiency in technical areas such as timbre, intonation, diction, range, or speed of execution

Technical accuracy, technical skill Ability to perform with appropriate timbre, intonation, and diction as well as to play or sing the correct pitches and rhythms at a tempo appropriate to the musical work Tempo
Rate or speed of the beat in a musical work or performance Tension/release
Musical device (musical stress, instability, or intensity, followed by musical relaxation, stability, or resolution) used to create a flow of feeling Ternary form
(See ABA)
Texture Manner in which the harmonic (vertical) and melodic (horizontal) elements are combined to create layers of sound Theme and variations Musical form in which a melody is presented and then followed by two or more sections presenting variations of that melody Theoretical (See Fundamentals of Music Theory) Timbre
Tone color or tone quality that distinguishes one sound source, instrument, or voice from another Tonal pattern
Grouping, generally brief, of tones or pitches
Tonality
Tonic or key tone around which a piece of music is centered Transfer
Use music knowledge and skills appropriately in a new context

Unity Presence of structural coherence within a work, generally achieved through the repetition of various elements of music (See Variety) Variety
Presence of structural contrast within a work for the purpose of creating and sustaining interest, generally achieved through utilizing variations in the treatment of the elements of music (See Unity) Venue
Physical setting in which a musical event takes place Vocables Audible sounds and/or nonsense syllables used by vocalists to convey musical ideas or intent
Vocalizations
Vocal exercises that include no text and are sung to one or more vowels
