

I can... ART

Name:

01E35-18

Room: _____

- interpret the subject-matter, technique, and style of artworks.
- create artwork describing a place which is important to me.
- create an artwork inspired by master artworks.
- create an artwork that has attention to detail and media skills.
- create an artwork effectively using techniques to create an illusion of space.
- write an artist statement reflecting on my artistic choices and inspirations.

How can art record and present aspects of life?

Art can record history, and show happy and sad moments.

ART REFLECTION

Name:

Room:

What inspired your artwork? (Include examples of how you used the learning from the artists studied.)

Content

~~Water Gull~~
Pencil

Style

Realistic

Technique

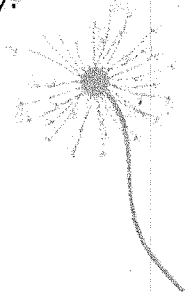

Pencil

2 stars (things you are proud of)

Overall I think my artwork is successful because:

Decent self portrait
Good background

1 wish (If I were to do these creative activities again, I would do these things differently:

How can I use this learning again? How did I become a better artist?

If I were to do these creative activities again, I would do these things differently:

I would use more lines and add more depth.

01E35-18

Artist's Statement

Walk by the beach, smelling
the sweet sand and the wonderful palm trees. This is what my portrait is.

I made my artwork
by using pencils to make bold lines, then I filled in the lines with warm and cool colors. Then is how I made my picture.

That is how I made my portrait.
I made it because I will be visiting Cancun over the summer.

Short Description of the Assessment/Key Traits	No evidence	Limited evidence	Sufficient evidence	Strong evidence
Students collaboratively observe, analyze, and respond to a body of artworks about places, focusing on content, style, and technique. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Discuss various ideas about places presented in works of art. • Share personal interpretations of the works of art. • Discuss classmates' interpretations of artworks about places • Discuss the settings within each artwork and draw conclusions about the ideas and mood conveyed. 	Student observed the art work but did not respond to any questions or make comments.	Student observed and analyzed the art work and made limited contributions to the discussion.	Student created an artwork with lack of concern for craftsmanship, developing quality craftsmanship while demonstrating exceptional craftsmanship while communicating something about a place that has significance for them, and is inspired by the content, style, or technique of artworks observed and analyzed.	Students create an artwork that communicates something about a place that has significance for them, and is inspired by the content, style, or technique of artworks observed and analyzed while demonstrating quality craftsmanship while communicating something about a place that has significance for them and is inspired by the content, style, or technique of artworks observed and analyzed.
Students create an artwork that communicates something about a place that has significance for them, and is inspired by the content, style, or technique of artworks observed and analyzed. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Document and explain the early stages of beginning their creative work. • Choose content, style, or technique and demonstrate craftsmanship in creating a work of art about a place that has personal significance. • Create a work of art that communicates personal significance of a place. • Describe how personal artwork reflects inspiration obtained through observing and analyzing artworks. • Use art vocabulary in artist statements to explain the choices made to visually communicate ideas about a place that has personal significance. 	Student created an artwork that demonstrates quality craftsmanship while communicating something about a place that has significance for them and is inspired by the content, style, or technique of artworks observed and analyzed.	Student created an artwork that demonstrates quality craftsmanship while communicating something about a place that has significance for them or shows inspiration from the content, style, or technique of artworks observed and analyzed.	Student created an artwork that demonstrates quality craftsmanship while communicating something about a place that has significance for them and is inspired by the content, style, or technique of artworks observed and analyzed.	Student created an artwork that demonstrates exceptional craftsmanship while communicating something about a place that has significance for them and is inspired by the content, style, or technique of artworks observed and analyzed.

Student used art vocabulary in an advanced manner in an artist statement to explain the choices made to visually communicate about a place that has personal significance.	Student used art vocabulary in an artist statement to explain the choices made to visually communicate about a place that has personal significance.	Student wrote an artist statement and minimally explained choices made.	Student wrote an artist statement but did not explain choices made.	Students write an artist statement to be displayed with their completed artwork. (Connecting) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Use formal and conceptual vocabularies to describe how places are seen in new ways. Explain how a work of art helps us understand the lives of people in different times, places, and cultures. Demonstrate an understanding of how art can record and present certain aspects of life. Use art vocabulary in artist statements to explain the choices made to visually communicate ideas about a place that has personal significance.
Student presented his/her artwork and artist statement and participated in a group discussion about an appropriate location for physically or digitally displaying the finished work.	Student presented his/her artwork and artist statement and participated in a group discussion about an appropriate location for physically or digitally displaying the finished work.	Student presented his/her artwork and artist statement and made limited contributions to a group discussion about an appropriate location for physically or digitally displaying the finished work.	Student presented artwork without artist statement and did not participate in a group discussion	Students present their artworks and artist statements for a group discussion about an appropriate location for physically or digitally displaying the finished work and how a display communicates information and ideas to the viewer. (Presenting) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Choose exhibit sites based on themes of completed student artwork. Explain how an art work fits a chosen location. Explain how presenting art physically or digitally influences the message being communicated.

Sample Scoring Device C: 5th Grade Standards-Based Holistic Rubric

NOTE: For this rubric, the Performance Standards are aligned to demonstrate how each of the artistic processes is addressed in the rubric. The qualitative descriptions relate to how well the student met the performance standards.

5th Grade Standards-Based Holistic Rubric

Student Name _____

Date _____

Performance Standards:	Creating	Presenting
Strong evidence	Degree to which performance standard has been met. In the process of generating ideas for art making, effectively combines ideas about content, style, and technique used in artworks investigated along with ideas about places that have personal significance.	Degree to which performance standard has been met. Creates a work of art that communicates about a place of personal significance and is clearly inspired by content, style, and/or technique of artworks observed and interpreted.
Sufficient evidence	Degree to which performance standard has been met. In the process of generating ideas for art making, combines ideas about content, style, and technique used in artworks investigated along with ideas about places that have personal significance.	Degree to which performance standard has been met. Creates a work of art that communicates about a place of personal significance and is inspired by content, style, or technique of artworks observed and interpreted.
Limited evidence	Degree to which performance standard has been met. In the process of generating ideas for art making, ineffectively combines ideas about content, style, and technique used in artworks investigated along with ideas about places that have personal significance.	Degree to which performance standard has been met. Creates a work of art that communicates about a place of personal significance but is not inspired by content, style, or technique of artworks observed and interpreted.
No evidence	Degree to which performance standard has been met. In the process of generating ideas for art making, does not consider ideas about content, style, and technique used in artworks investigated along with ideas about places that have personal significance.	Degree to which performance standard has been met. Creates an artist statement but does not use art vocabulary or describe personal choices.
Creating	Degree to which performance standard has been met. Combine ideas to generate an innovative idea for art-making.	Degree to which performance standard has been met. Identify, describe, and visually document places and/or objects of personal significance.
Presenting	Degree to which performance standard has been met. Creates an artist statement using art vocabulary to describe personal choices made in art-making.	Degree to which performance standard has been met. Uses advanced art vocabulary in artist statement that thoroughly explains the choices made to communicate ideas and reflect inspiration from artworks.

Connecting	Degree to which performance standard has been met.	Degree to which performance standard has been met.	Degree to which performance standard has been met.	Degree to which performance standard has been met.
Interpret art by analyzing characteristics of form and structure, contextual information, subject matter, visual elements, and use of media to identify ideas and mood conveyed.	Describes few to no characteristics of form and structure, contextual information, subject matter, visual elements, and use of media and draws limited to no conclusions about ideas and mood.	Describes some characteristics of form and structure, contextual information, subject matter, visual elements, and use of media and draws limited conclusions about ideas and mood.	Describes characteristics of form and structure, contextual information, subject matter, visual elements, and use of media about ideas and mood.	Describes characteristics of form and structure, contextual information, subject matter, visual elements, and use of media and draws highly plausible conclusions about ideas and mood.
Compare one's own interpretation of a work of art with the interpretation of others.	Provides own interpretation of an artwork but does not compare it to a classmate's interpretation of the same artwork.	Identifies some of the obvious similarities and differences between own interpretation of an artwork and a classmate's interpretation of the same artwork.	Identify obvious similarities and differences between own interpretation of an artwork and classmate's interpretation of the same artwork.	Identifies obvious and subtle similarities and differences between own interpretation of an artwork and classmate's interpretation of the same artwork.
Responding Cite evidence about how an exhibition in a museum or other venue presents ideas and provides information about a specific concept or topic.	Provides input regarding a suggested location or a suggested format for display, but does not address ideas and information communicated.	Provides input regarding how a suggested location or a suggested format for display impacts ideas and information communicated.	Provides input regarding how a suggested location and format for display impact ideas and information communicated.	Provides compelling input regarding how a suggested location and format for display impact ideas and information communicated.

Clearly applies newly learned and previously learned vocabularies in creating a work of art that communicates about a place of personal significance in an innovative way.	Applies newly learned vocabularies in creating a work of art that communicates about a place of personal significance in a new way.	Insightfully addresses the question "How can art change an individual's or society's beliefs, values, or behaviors?" through artist statement and group discussion.
Applies some newly learned vocabularies in creating a work of art that communicates about a place of personal significance.	Adequately addresses the question "How can art change an individual's or society's beliefs, values, or behaviors?" through artist statement or group discussion.	Minimally addresses the question "How can art change an individual's or society's beliefs, values, or behaviors?" through artist statement or group discussion.
Does not apply newly learned vocabularies in creating a work of art that communicates about a place of personal significance.	Does not address the question "How can art change an individual's or society's beliefs, values, or behaviors?" through artist statement or group discussion.	Identify how art is used to inform or change beliefs, values, or behaviors of an individual or society.
Apply formal and conceptual learned vocabularies in creating a work of art that communicates about a place of personal significance.	Comments:

Sample Scoring Device D: 5th Grade Standards-Based Holistic Check List

NOTE: This sample device provides a rubric that includes the Performance Standards and a listing of evidence to be found in students' performances that relate to the outcomes of the Model Cornerstone Assessment.

5th Grade Standards-Based Holistic Check List

Student Name _____		Date _____
Performance Standards	Evidence	Not Observed	Observed
Creating: Combine ideas to generate an innovative idea for art-making.	In the process of generating ideas for art making, combines ideas about content, style, and technique used in artworks investigated along with ideas about places that have personal significance.		✓
Demonstrate quality craftsmanship through care for and use of materials, tools, and equipment.	Demonstrates exceptional craftsmanship through appropriate use of and care for materials, tools, and equipment including work space.		✓
Identify, describe, and visually document places and/or objects of personal significance.	Creates a work of art that communicates about a place of personal significance and is inspired by content, style, and/or technique of artworks observed and interpreted.		✓
Create artist statements using art vocabulary to describe personal choices made in art-making.	Uses art vocabulary in artist statement that explains the choices made to communicate ideas and reflect inspiration from artworks.		✓
Comments

Presenting: Cite evidence about how an exhibition in a museum or other venue presents ideas and provides information about a specific concept or topic.	Provides input regarding how a suggested location and format for display impact ideas and information communicated.		✓
Responding: Compare one's own interpretation of a work of art with the interpretation of others.	Identify obvious similarities and differences between own interpretation of an artwork and classmates' interpretations of the same artwork.		✓
Interpret art by analyzing characteristics of form and structure, contextual information, subject matter, visual elements, and use of media to identify ideas and mood conveyed.	Describes characteristics of form and structure, contextual information, subject matter, visual elements, and use of media and draws conclusions about ideas and mood.		✓
Connecting: Apply formal and conceptual vocabularies in creating a work of art that communicates about a place of personal significance in a new way.

Additional Comments:

Limited Progress	Steady Progress	Mastered
The student explored one way to approach an art problem.	The student explored more than one way to approach an art problem and made connections to previous knowledge.	The student explored several choices before selecting one; made connections to previous knowledge; and demonstrated problem solving skills.
Student work applies some newly learned art elements and principles of design.	Student work applies most newly learned and previously learned art elements and principles of design.	Student work clearly applies newly learned and previously learned art elements and principles of design.
Student artwork is incomplete and/or does not reflect pride and attention to detail.	Student work demonstrates ownership and pride with some attention to detail and mastering of media skills.	Student work demonstrates ownership and pride through attending to detail, making work aesthetically pleasing, and mastering media skills.
Student work does not communicate a personal interest or experience.	Student work communicates a personal interest or experience.	Student work clearly communicates a personal interest or experience supported by content, style, and/or technique.
Student is able to explain some decisions made in creating, but does not make a connection between these choices and personal interest or experience.	Student is able to explain decisions made in creating and connect how these choices express a personal interest or experience.	Student is able to explain decisions made in creating, how an idea is expressed through their artwork, and the influences for their work.
Pre-Planning	Composition	Art Media
Self-Expression	Reflection	