

2. EIGHT (7d)

Community Share Reflection

1. my community movement was a cheer community movement. I love cheer and for the past few years it has been a big part of my life.
2. My movement was the only athletic movement so it was a little different than the others.
3. all of our communities involved being around other people who we all liked & had things in common with.