

National Coalition for Arts Standards Copyright Information

For all uses of the standards, the following copyright statement should be prominently displayed:

National Core Arts Standards © 2014 National Coalition for Core Arts Standards. Rights administered by Young Audiences, Inc. New York, NY. All rights reserved.
<https://www.nationalartsstandards.org>.

EDUCATIONAL USE

- a. State Education Agencies Directors of Arts Education (SEADAE) and SEADAE member states have unrestricted rights to copy, duplicate, reproduce or distribute intellectual property to meet their needs serving as State Directors of Arts Education.
- b. The Departments of Education or equivalent entities in each of the United States, territories or the District of Columbia who create state standards have unrestricted rights to copy, duplicate, reproduce or distribute "The Standards" in pursuance of the public, non-profit mission of those Departments of Education to provide education through the public schools. Furthermore, the Departments of Education or equivalent entities in each of the United States, territories or the District of Columbia, who base their state standards in whole or in part on the National Arts Standards, as well as other derivative works, are encouraged to acknowledge NCAS through the following language:

Portions of this work are based on the National Arts Standards
(Copyright © 2014 National Coalition for Arts Standards)

- c. Arts Educators teaching in any art discipline (dance, media arts, music, theatre, and visual arts) and teachers in public and private education (PreK-12, higher education, educational outreach centers of performing arts organizations, and community/cultural arts centers) may duplicate the standards as they appear on the NCAS website without having to request permission from Young Audiences, Inc.

COPYRIGHT PERMISSION REQUESTS & GUIDELINES FOR OTHER USES

The following guidelines apply to all commercial or non-commercial entities seeking to duplicate, distribute, disseminate (electronically or otherwise), or make derivative works from the NCAS National Arts Standards that may result in formal or informal publications, electronic tools or works (books, articles, newspapers, and journals), or for use in professional development and training, not exempted by educational use above. These revised guidelines apply to all licensing requests or inquiries processed on or after September 9, 2016.

A copyright license and written permission from Young Audiences, Inc. (YAI) is required whenever copyrighted material, beyond that destined for educational use as above, is duplicated or disseminated, electronically or otherwise. Permission to reprint is not official until YAI and the entity requesting permission have signed the Application for Copyright Permission, and payment is submitted.

Reprint Permission Process

1. Read the NCAS Copyright Permission Guidelines and Application for Copyright Permission contained herein.

2. For all instances needing copyright permission, complete the online Application for Copyright Permission found at <https://form.jotform.com/193504219013045>.

If for any reason you are unable to access the form, please contact lauren@ya.org.

3. Completed application forms will be processed by YAI as fiscal and copyright agent for the National Arts Standards. Submissions will be processed on a case-by-case basis. Please expect an email from an NCAS representative.

Final licensing agreements may require additional payment.

National Coalition for Arts Standards Copyright Guidelines

SECTION I: Free and Unlimited use is granted for the following categories:

1. Overarching Anchor Standards
2. Framework Matrix Template

SECTION II: Permission is needed for the following categories:

5. Conceptual Framework for Arts Learning (2014)
6. Discipline-specific Performance Standards
7. Discipline-specific Process Components
8. Discipline Specific Enduring Understandings
9. Discipline Specific Essential Questions
10. Discipline-specific Cornerstone Assessments

11. Discipline-specific Glossary
12. Illustrations and artwork
13. Templates
14. Tables, graphs, and charts
15. Logos – individual organizations and NCAS logo
16. Photos – absolutely no photos may be reproduced

SECTION III: Permission is not needed for:

1. Blogs, Books, Articles, Journals, Newspapers. Free and unlimited access is granted to all entities to reproduce, duplicate, or distribute information about the NCAS Anchor Standards and Framework Matrix Template with prominent display of citation/attribution.
2. Tables, Graphics, and Figures. Significantly adapted tables, graphics and figures that are compiled from numerous other sources, as long as they do not resemble the original resource within the NCAS document. This means you add new information, present the information or image in a significantly different way, interpret data differently from the original source, or use only a small portion of the original material.
3. Paraphrasing. Generally, one may paraphrase the material presented in the NCAS intellectual property.

GENERAL POLICIES

1. Commercial Entities. All commercial entities must seek permission from SEADAE to copy, duplicate, reproduce, disseminate (electronically or otherwise), or distribute intellectual property from the NCCAS Standards exceeding 250 words, beyond that attributed to general use (Artistic Processes, Overarching Anchor Standards and the Framework Matrix Template).
2. Fair Use. The public-at-large is granted the right to quote up to 250 words of the National Core Arts Standards if accompanied by proper citation that is prominently displayed. To quote more than 250 words, individuals and entities of the public-at-large must seek permission from SEADAE using the Copyright Guidelines and Application at the end of this document.
3. Attribution. The following copyright statement should be prominently displayed:
National Core Arts Standards © 2014 National Coalition for Arts Standards. Rights administered by Young Audiences, Inc. New York, NY. All rights reserved. _
<https://www.nationalartsstandards.org>

Materials found on Partner or Discipline Specific Sites (AATE, AftA, EdTA, NAEA, NafME, NDEO, NAMAe, SEADAE, YAI)

If an individual or education entity wishes to copy, duplicate, reproduce, distribute, disseminate (electronically or otherwise) or prepare derivative works from intellectual property created by the NCAS partner organizations, and cited on a discipline-specific web site, educators must seek permission from the individual discipline-specific organization .