

4/7/75 community share reflection

- 1) I relate to my community movement that I selected because it describes how my community
- 2) My movement was around the same time and the others in my group
- 3) They all involved something we really like, all the communities were caring.