

My artwork was successful because i used what I learned. My medium was colored pencils and Sharpies. I chose colored pencils so I could make the value as light or dark as I wanted. With Sharpies I was able to make different sized lines. The place that has the most meaning to me is my church because it's where I can worship God. My art was inspired by Walker Evans because of the stained glass effect of his different type of lines.