

I chose a place that has personal significance to me, Language Arts classroom, because it shows that I express myself in writing. I brought materials to represent my Language Arts class. So, I got some inspiration from Walker Evans' BROOKLYN BRIDGE. I used his style when I did photography in black and white to show emphasis and vivid shadows. I believe I did express myself as I hoped.