

Artist Statement

For me, art is an opportunity to express intellectual pursuits, values, ideas, and conflicts. I begin a piece with a simple subject, and expand it into an artistic plan. This often involves choosing media thoughtfully, then manipulating it to enhance the given message. I use layers to convey dimension and build meaning. My process, which often involves mathematical and scientific thinking, is intended to make everyday concepts special and revealing.